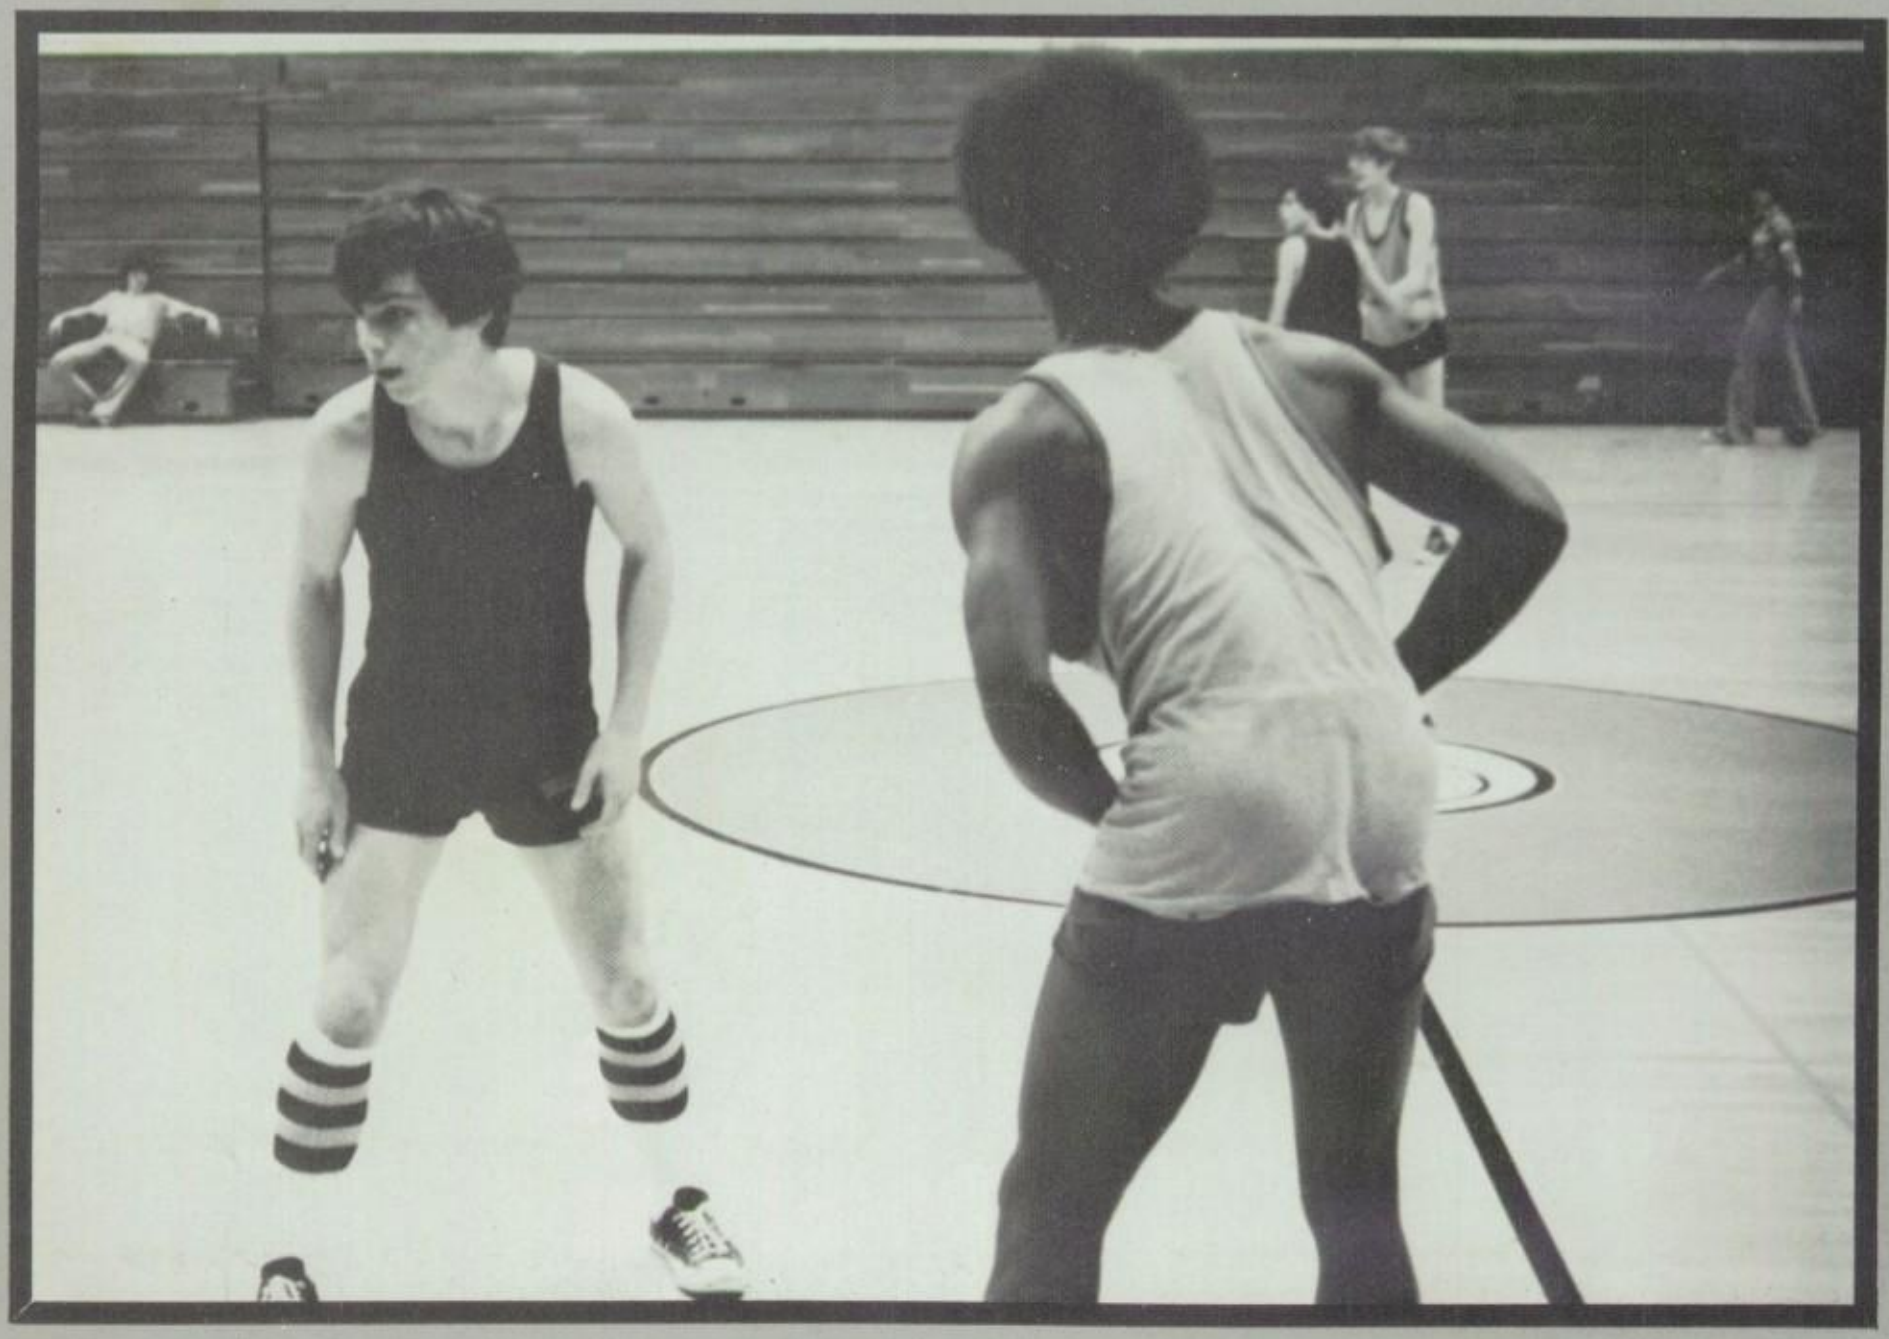
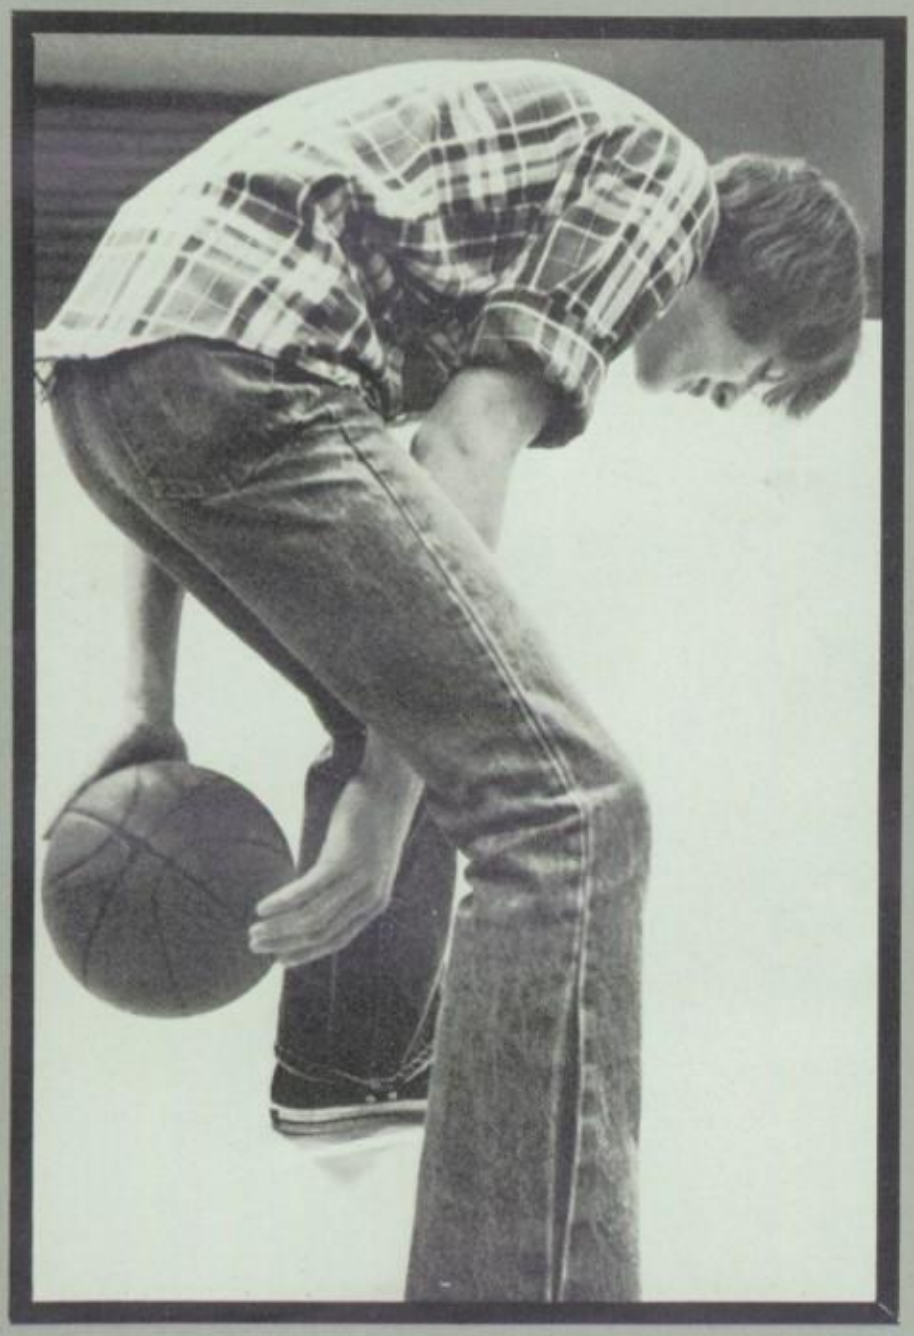
CONTRASTS:

OUR LIVES ARE FILLED WITH OPPOSITES . . .
WE'VE BEEN THROUGH THICK AND THIN . . .

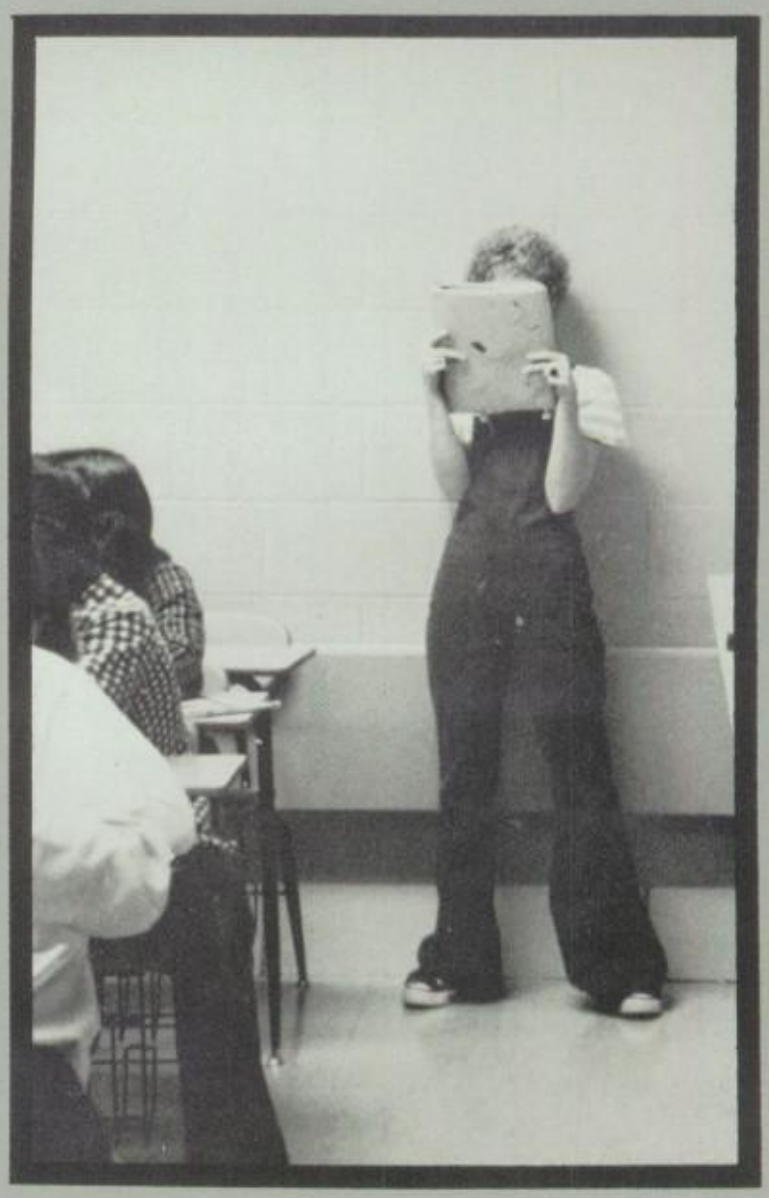




SOMETIMES WE'VE HAD TO LEARN TO LOSE . . .
SOMETIMES, WITH WORK, WE WIN.

SOMETIMES WE'RE ALL TOGETHER . . .

SOMETIMES WE'RE ALL ALONE . .



SOMETIMES WE ACT CRAZY . . .

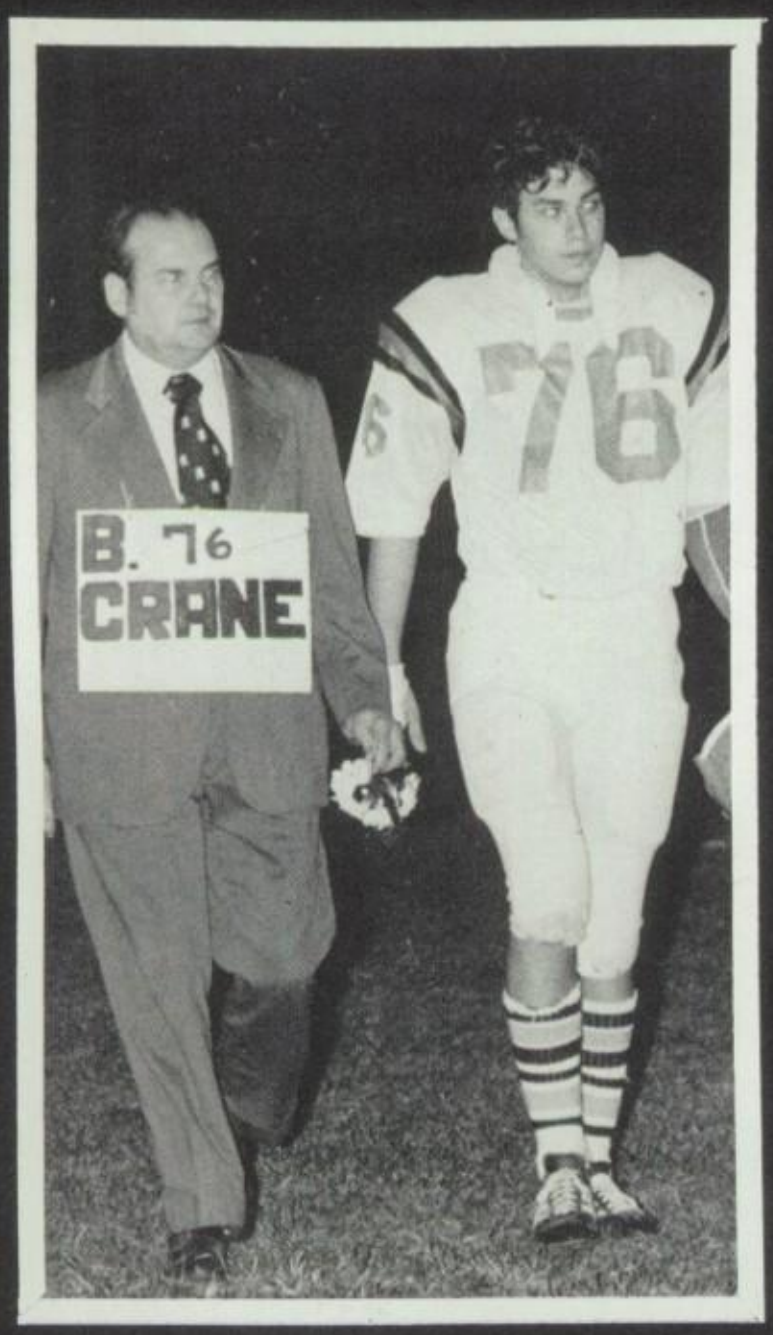
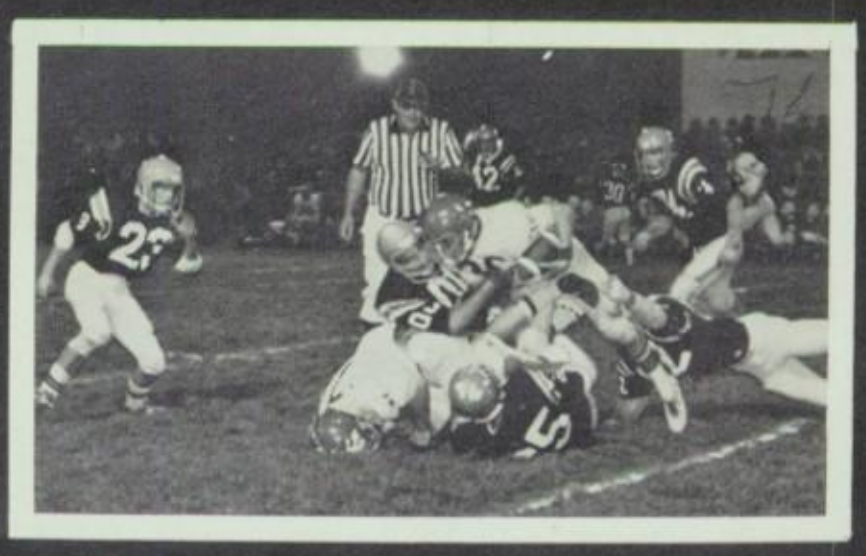
PARENT'S NIGHT

All parents walked with a sense of pride and happiness, thinking of all the hard work their sons or daughters had put into their various activities.

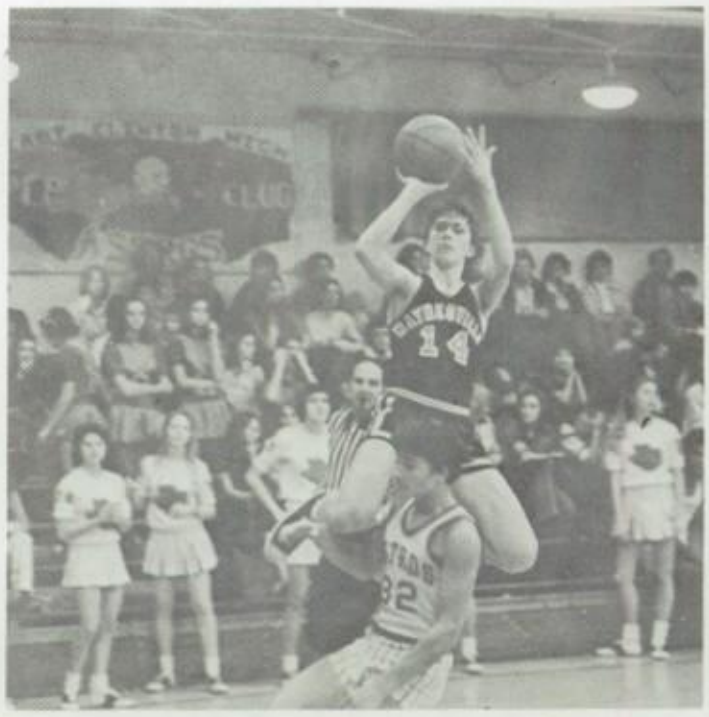


Mr. Ling wondering where the band went.

You could even see the extra excitement in the cheerleaders.



BASKETBALL



This year's varsity basketball team got off to a slow start but started coming on the last half of the season. The Spartans will lose seniors Chris Simpson, Doug Livingston, and Dave Stubbs.

FOREIGN STUDENTS

Allen Gallagher (New Zealand) & German Morales (Columbia)

"When I first came to Waynesville, I was confident I would have 12 months of good times, good friends, and good memories. Well, only now has this all come true. I had a hard time for a while getting to know people, knowing what they were talking about when they reminisced, and knowing how to present myself so people would accept me. The kids at Waynesville High turned out to be really good people. I have come to know them well, and although I can't reminise like they can, I can say that I will miss the seniors after they graduate this year. I'll look forward to being a senior with the class of '77, and I'm going to miss everybody an awful lot after January of next year." ... Julie Speirs ...

"Despues de haber estado durante todo un año compartiendo la vida escolar en éste punto de los estados unidos llamado "Waynesville", solo me queda decir que encontré una gran amistad y sinceridad entre todos mis compañeros de estudio, por la cual quiero dejar presente con estas palabras que siempre tendré un recuerdo maravilloso de las personas que me atendieron como en mi propio país. Gracias a todos y Colombia siempre los estará esperando." ..... German Morales .....

THANK YOU

Many long hours have gone into the completion of this yearbook. The yearbook staff and advisor, all virtually without experience, have learned by doing. We have not created a perfect book. We have, however, tried to lay the ground work for improving future yearbooks. All major decisions for this book were made by the yearbook staff. More coverage of girl's sports and candid pictures has been included. The staff itself has been expanded to include 8th, 9th, and 10th graders . . . in order to build an experienced staff for the years to come.

We feel it is appropriate to thank those people who helped us complete our task:

W.H.S. Faculty and Staff
John Jones, of Herff-Jones Yearbooks
Rob Osborne, of Osborne Studios, Middletown
The merchants of the community, whose purchase of advertising keeps the cost of this yearbook reasonable. Please patronize these people who support our schools. Also, the following staff members deserve special recognition:

Susan Shutts, Editor-in-Chief
Carleda Wright, Layout Editor
Kurt Andres, Sports Editor
Devela Robinson, Business Mgr.
Beth Snoddy, Senior Editor
Mike Anderson, Student Photographer

A SPECIAL THANK YOU

As Mr. William Myers takes his retirement this year, we feel a special thank you is in order for his years of service and dedication to this school and community and to education. After teaching and serving as superintendent in serveral Clinton County schools, Mr. Myers came to Waynesville as Superintendent (1963-69.) From 1969 to 1976 he taught O.W.E. classes. He is a gentleman and a person of high integrity. We will miss him as a teacher and a friend.
